

MUSIC LIFE STUDIOS

WEBSITE, PRIVACY, ELECTRONIC RECORDS, AND CUSTOMER-FACING POLICIES

1. WEBSITE TERMS OF USE

Effective Date: [INSERT]

Version: [INSERT]

These Website Terms of Use govern access to and use of the Music Life Studios website and online account, booking, payment, file-delivery, loyalty, membership, and contract features.

1.1 Website Operator

The website is operated by:

Maurice Edward Smith, hereinafter referred to as “Wiz,” a sole proprietor doing business as Music Life Studios

4219 W. 21st Place
Chicago, Illinois 60623
Cook County
Email: wizdum84@gmail.com
Business Phone: 708-477-7104

1.2 Website Functions

The website may allow users to:

- review Music Life Studios services;
- create a free Music Lifer account;
- purchase or manage Passport membership;
- book Studio sessions;
- purchase mixing, mastering, beat, production, or other services;
- earn and redeem loyalty rewards;
- select eligible beats;
- accept licenses;
- upload project files;
- make payments;

- electronically sign agreements;
- communicate about projects; and
- retrieve completed files.

Availability of a feature does not guarantee availability of a particular Studio service, beat, engineer, booking time, license, or membership benefit.

1.3 Separate Service Agreements

Purchasing a Studio service may require acceptance of the Music Life Studios Services Agreement, Schedule A, and applicable modules.

Where these Website Terms conflict with a signed transaction-specific agreement concerning the purchased service, the signed transaction-specific agreement controls for that transaction.

These Website Terms do not silently:

- transfer copyright;
- grant an exclusive license;
- change publishing ownership;
- transfer master ownership;
- create work-made-for-hire status; or
- expand a beat license.

1.4 Accounts

Users must provide materially accurate account information.

Users are responsible for maintaining reasonable security over passwords, login credentials, and devices used to access their accounts.

A user should promptly notify Music Life Studios if the user reasonably believes an account has been compromised.

1.5 Free Music Lifer Accounts

A Music Lifer account is a free loyalty account.

Creating a Music Lifer account does not create a paid subscription.

Loyalty rewards remain subject to the applicable Music Lifer Loyalty Schedule and reward rules.

1.6 Passport Accounts

Passport is an optional paid recurring membership.

Passport membership terms are controlled by the applicable Passport Membership Schedule.

1.7 Beat Catalog Information

Catalog availability may change.

A beat shown on the website is not reserved for a Customer merely because the Customer viewed, previewed, favorited, or selected it before completing the applicable redemption or purchase process.

Beat availability may include statuses such as:

- Available for Nonexclusive Lease;
- Temporarily Unavailable;
- Pending Exclusive Sale; and
- Exclusively Sold / No New Licenses.

Historical licenses are not erased merely because a beat later changes status.

1.8 Uploads

Users may upload only material they own or have permission to submit.

Users may not upload:

- malware;
- intentionally corrupted files;
- unlawful material;
- material submitted for harassment or abuse;
- content the user has no right to provide; or
- material designed to interfere with the website or Studio systems.

1.9 Intellectual Property

Music Life Studios and applicable licensors retain rights in Studio-owned:

- branding;
- logos;
- website copy;
- photographs;
- graphics;
- original videos;
- beat previews;
- software elements;
- contract templates;
- and other protected website content.

A Customer receives no ownership of those materials merely by using the website.

1.10 Prohibited Conduct

Users may not:

- attempt unauthorized system access;
- circumvent technical restrictions;
- impersonate another person;
- interfere with another customer's account;
- misuse reward systems;
- manipulate payment or loyalty records;
- falsely claim copyright ownership;
- use automated copyright systems contrary to an issued beat license;
- scrape restricted content in violation of applicable law or authorization; or
- use the site for unlawful activity.

1.11 Third-Party Providers

Music Life Studios may use third-party providers for:

- payment processing;
- website hosting;
- booking;
- cloud storage;
- file transfer;
- email;
- electronic signatures;
- analytics;
- security; and
- related functions.

Use of a particular third-party provider is not guaranteed unless expressly stated.

1.12 Availability

Music Life Studios does not guarantee uninterrupted website operation.

Maintenance, provider outages, security incidents, force majeure, updates, or technical problems may temporarily affect access.

1.13 Governing Law

Illinois is the provisional governing-law jurisdiction, subject to mandatory rights that may apply to users in other jurisdictions.

Final dispute and venue terms must remain consistent with the Music Life Studios Services Agreement.

2. PRIVACY POLICY — FIRST IMPLEMENTATION DRAFT

Effective Date: [INSERT]

Version: [INSERT]

This Privacy Policy describes the categories of information Music Life Studios may collect and how that information may be used in connection with Studio services, accounts, bookings, memberships, loyalty rewards, beat licensing, payments, and file delivery.

2.1 Information Customers Provide

Music Life Studios may collect:

- legal name;
- artist or project name;
- email address;
- telephone number;
- billing/contact information;
- booking information;
- membership information;
- Music Lifer loyalty information;
- order history;
- reward history;
- beat-license information;
- project notes;
- uploaded audio;
- lyrics;
- stems;
- session files;
- artwork;
- images;
- signed agreements;
- communications with Music Life Studios; and
- other information a Customer voluntarily provides.

2.2 Transaction Information

Music Life Studios may maintain information about:

- payment status;

- amounts paid;
- deposits;
- refunds;
- chargebacks;
- membership billing status;
- reward qualification;
- credits;
- discounts;
- and transaction identifiers.

Payment-card data may be handled directly by the designated payment processor rather than stored directly by Music Life Studios.

2.3 Technical Information

Depending on the final website configuration, Music Life Studios may collect technical information such as:

- IP address;
- browser type;
- device information;
- timestamps;
- login records;
- cookie identifiers;
- signing metadata; and
- security/activity logs.

IMPLEMENTATION FLAG: Only retain this list if the final website actually collects these categories.

2.4 Why Information Is Used

Music Life Studios may use information to:

- provide Studio services;
- schedule sessions;
- administer Music Lifer accounts;
- administer Passport membership;
- track loyalty rewards;
- issue beat licenses;
- preserve historical license records;
- process payments;
- deliver files;
- communicate about projects;
- verify electronic signatures;
- maintain signed contract records;
- respond to support requests;
- prevent fraud or account abuse;
- enforce agreements;

- comply with legal obligations;
- protect Studio systems; and
- send marketing communications where lawfully permitted.

2.5 Unreleased Music and Project Material

Music Life Studios will use reasonable care to avoid unauthorized public disclosure of unreleased Customer project material.

Access may be provided to service providers, contractors, advisers, or others when reasonably necessary to provide the service, operate the business, respond to legal requirements, or protect safety and security.

Portfolio or promotional use requires separate permission.

2.6 Project File Retention

Music Life Studios' standard project-file retention periods are:

- Guest / nonmember: 30 days
- Free Music Lifer: 90 days
- Passport member: at least 90 days at launch

These periods do not apply automatically to every category of business record.

Contracts, transaction records, tax records, payment records, fraud/security records, license history, or legally required records may be retained for different periods.

2.7 Beat License Records

Music Life Studios intends to preserve historical beat-license information, including:

- beat ID;
- licensee;
- license type;
- license version;
- reward source;
- license start date;
- usage rights;
- signatures;
- and related transaction records.

A historical license should not be deleted or rewritten merely because a beat later changes catalog status or is sold exclusively.

2.8 Service Providers

Music Life Studios may share information with vendors that perform legitimate business functions.

Final vendor categories may include:

Payment Processor: [INSERT FINAL PROVIDER]

Website Host: [INSERT]

Booking Provider: [INSERT]

File Storage / Transfer: [INSERT]

Electronic Signature Provider: [INSERT]

Email Provider: [INSERT]

Analytics Provider: [INSERT OR "NONE"]

Advertising / Marketing Pixels: [INSERT OR "NONE"]

SMS Provider: [INSERT OR "NONE"]

Do not publish vendor names until confirmed.

2.9 Legal and Safety Disclosures

Music Life Studios may disclose information when reasonably necessary to:

- comply with law;
- respond to valid legal process;
- protect customers or the public;
- investigate fraud;
- enforce agreements;
- protect Studio property or systems; or
- obtain legal, accounting, insurance, or security assistance.

2.10 Marketing Communications

Email or text-message marketing will be sent only according to the practices actually implemented and applicable law.

IMPLEMENTATION FLAG: Confirm:

- whether marketing email will be used;
- whether marketing SMS will be used;
- consent method;
- unsubscribe method;
- opt-out records;
- and applicable vendors.

2.11 Cookies and Analytics

FINAL WEBSITE CONFIGURATION REQUIRED.

This section should identify only cookies, analytics, advertising technologies, or tracking tools actually used.

Do not insert generic tracking language merely because other websites use it.

2.12 Security

Music Life Studios will use reasonable administrative and technical safeguards appropriate to the systems actually used.

No internet-based or electronic system can guarantee absolute security.

2.13 Customer Requests

Customers may contact:

wizdum84@gmail.com

regarding reasonable questions or requests involving personal information.

Specific legal rights may depend on the Customer's jurisdiction and the type of information involved.

2.14 Minors

Minor-client information must be handled consistently with the Minor Client and Parent/Guardian Consent and the website's final minor-account rules.

BUSINESS / LEGAL DECISION REQUIRED: Determine whether minors may independently create online accounts.

2.15 Privacy Policy Changes

Material updates should receive a new effective date and version number.

Where applicable law requires additional notice or consent, Music Life Studios will use the required procedure.

PRIVACY / SECURITY REVIEW REQUIRED BEFORE PUBLICATION.

3. ELECTRONIC RECORDS AND SIGNATURE CONSENT

Version: [INSERT]

By choosing electronic acceptance, the signer agrees to conduct the applicable Music Life Studios transaction electronically.

3.1 Electronic Records

The signer agrees that Music Life Studios may provide agreements, schedules, notices, receipts, policies, licenses, and transaction records electronically.

3.2 Ability to Review

Before acceptance, the signer must be given a reasonable opportunity to review the documents that apply to the transaction.

3.3 Ability to Retain

The signing system should allow the signer to download, print, save, or otherwise retain a copy of the completed agreement.

3.4 Electronic Signature Methods

Electronic acceptance may include:

- typed signature;
- drawn signature;
- checkbox acceptance;
- authenticated account acceptance;
- timestamp;
- agreement version;
- license/module version;
- and other identifying information actually used by the system.

3.5 Exact Agreement Copy

Music Life Studios should preserve the exact contract and module versions accepted in the transaction.

Beat licenses should be preserved as immutable historical records tied to the applicable beat and license version.

3.6 Payment Is Separate

Electronic signing does not itself prove that payment succeeded.

Where successful payment is required before effectiveness, the agreement becomes effective only after successful verified payment.

3.7 High-Risk Separate Assent

Music Life Studios may require separate initials, signatures, checkboxes, or other affirmative assent for:

- exclusive beat rights;
- copyright assignments;
- work-made-for-hire language;
- portfolio releases;
- liability provisions where advisable;
- and other high-risk terms.

3.8 Updated Contact Information

The signer is responsible for keeping relevant email and contact information reasonably current.

3.9 Withdrawal of Electronic Consent

A signer may contact Music Life Studios at wizdum84@gmail.com regarding withdrawal of electronic consent for future transactions where applicable.

Withdrawal does not invalidate a transaction already completed.

LEGAL REVIEW FLAG: Confirm federal and Illinois electronic-record procedures before launch.
